

Dear Camp Revach Applicant,

You have chosen to apply to be a staff member of Camp Revach. This is a special opportunity only given to highly responsible, committed individuals, with a positive attitude and great leadership qualities. We are happy to have you on board and know that you will be a great asset and role model for our Camp Revach campers. Below is a list of policies that you will abide by during your weeks in camp, to ensure that we all have a safe, fun and successful summer.

Please read the following policies and sign your name in the given area at the bottom of the page, so we know that you have read and understand all that is expected of you as a staff member of Camp Revach.

Staff Expectations/Policies:

1. BE PUNCTUAL! Each staff member plays an important role in conducting each day at Camp Revach. You have campers who depend on you. ALL COUNSELORS MUST BE PRESENT THE ENTIRE DAY OF CAMP 10:40am-3:30pm Monday through Thursday and 10:40am-2:00pm on Friday.

2. No staff member may leave camp grounds at any time during camp hours! If you need to leave for a particular reason, please obtain permission from your head staff.

3. HANDS OFF POLICY! Handshakes, high fives, and congratulatory gestures have their place at Camp Revach. However any physical contact of an inappropriate nature is not acceptable at Camp Revach and will not be tolerated.

4. FOCUSED! No use of cell phones or other electronic devices during camp hours. All electronic devices should remain in your bag until the end of the day.

5. BE THE EXAMPLE! As a Camp Revach staff member, you are playing the role of the "Mature Adult". The campers look up to you and want to follow in your footsteps. You should show them how to behave with good middos and appropriate behavior. i.e. politeness, well-mannered and respectful of others.

6. BE A PARTICIPANT! Make sure that you are involved with the activities that your campers are doing. Assist your campers with art projects, games, dances, swimming etc. Remember: the camp is about them! They are the campers and you are the staff member who is going to make this summer unforgettable for them! Participate in games, and activities. Your campers want to see that you are involved and having fun, along with them.
